- Keep your door locked at all times, even when you are in your room.
- DO NOT open your door to a stranger unless you have determined his/her identity. If you are unable to determine your visitor's identity, do not open the door.
- Lock your valuables in a safe or locker. If neither option is available, keep valuables well hidden when not in use.
- DO NOT throw documents containing confidential personal information (e.g., credit card numbers, personal correspondence, financial data) in public trash canisters.
- DO NOT enter your room if you find the door unlocked. Inform reception immediately.
- DO NOT leave the 'Please service the room' sign on the door when you are out.
- While you are out in the evening leave the 'Do not disturb' sign on the door.

Out and about

- Plan your journey beforehand.
- Carry only those things that you will need including minimum amounts of cash and credit cards.
- Remain alert to your surroundings.
- Never leave your handbag or personal belongings unattended.
- Walk in well-lit and well-trafficked areas.
- Write down the name and address of your accommodation, and carry the paper with you if you need to get a taxi back to your accommodation.
- Taxis should be arranged through proper dispatchers or hotels. Pay the driver before exiting the vehicle.
- It is advisable not to enter a taxi in which the driver is accompanied.

Carriage of handbags and laptop bags

- If you are going to a café, bar or restaurant, consider leaving the bag at home or carrying a bag smaller in size that can be managed easily.
- Do not leave your bag unattended at any time—hand the bag physically to a friend when going to the bathroom. Consider placing a chair leg through the strap of the bag and the bag placed firmly under the table touching your feet.
- Leave valuables at the hotel—never take items with you that you are not prepared to lose.
- When walking along the sides of the road always sling your bag across your body carrying your bag away from the threat or positioned to the front of your body.
- Tightly grip the top of the bag while walking.
