CEU/DEC/2(LXI)

COMMUNICATION OF THE CHAIRMAN

Agenda item 2 (document CEU/61/2)

The Commission,

Having heard the communication of its Chairman,

Thanks him for it;

1. Appreciates the work done regarding the three targets set by the Chairman namely:
 - a) to contribute to the further development of Europe as the top tourist destination in the world;
 - b) to strengthen the position of UNWTO European Member States;
 - c) to increase the role, importance and relevance of UNWTO in Europe;
 2. Congratulates Switzerland for conducting and leading a working session on "Projects to overcome the core challenges of European tourism", on 20 September 2016 in Bern, Switzerland, with the participation of the European members States, with the aim to identify the most important challenges for European tourism and to define actions for the UNWTO Programme of Work 2017-2019;
 3. Thanks Switzerland for actively participating in the Steering Committee for the IY2017 and for supporting the idea to host the closing ceremony of the International Year for Sustainable Tourism for Development in Geneva in December 2017;
 4. Notes with interest the insights provided on Switzerland's tourism policy, particularly relating to the three key topics: entrepreneurship, framework conditions and digitalization;
 5. Thanks Switzerland for its active cooperation with the UNWTO Secretariat.

CEU/DEC/3(LXI)

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

Agenda item 3 (document CEU/61/3)

The Commission,

Having heard the presentation of the Secretary-General,

1. Thanks him for it;
2. Welcomes the detailed update on the tourism results for 2016 and encouraging prospects for 2017 despite challenges;
3. Takes note with satisfaction that Europe is keeping its position as the number one tourist destination in the world, but nevertheless, calls upon more efforts to be done with regard to safety and security issues which are affecting Europe in general and some European destinations in particular,
4. Welcomes the work of the Organization regarding the progress achieved in the implementation of its priorities namely:
 - a) Promoting safe and seamless travel;
 - b) Enhancing the role of technology in tourism; and
 - c) Placing sustainability at the heart of tourism development and promoting the role of sustainable tourism in development.
5. Notes with satisfaction the success of the “Open Letter on Travel and Tourism Campaign”, which 87 leaders (27 countries in Europe) have joined by June 2017, and encourages Member states to pursue their prioritization of tourism as a key tool for socio-economic development;
6. Supports the work of the Secretariat for the 2017 International Year of Sustainable Tourism for Development and encourages UNWTO Member States to participate actively in its celebration;
7. Welcomes the official opening of the UNWTO Geneva Liaison Office, which will contribute to underlining the importance of tourism in the global development and trade agenda of the United Nations;
8. Appreciates the work of the Secretariat in mainstreaming tourism at the level of the European Union, and its reinforced relations with its various institutions such as with the European Commission, European Parliament and with the Committee of the Regions;
9. Congratulates UNWTO for the significant progress made on the Measuring Sustainable Tourism initiative, which has been highly welcomed and supported by the 48th Session of United Nations Statistical Commission;
10. Thanks the Secretary-General for its report on the re-organisation of the Secretariat and the financial and administrative situation of the Organization.

Having heard the report of the Executive Director for Programme and Coordination on the implementation of the General Programme of Work (August 2016 – February 2017),

1. Thanks him for the detailed information and takes note of the activities carried out by UNWTO between the period of August 2016- February 2017;
2. Thanks the Member States for their cooperation in the implementation of the General Programme of Work;
3. Appreciates the work of the Secretariat in sharing knowledge, experiences and best practices via capacity building activities and numerous international events hosted by Member States;
4. Congratulates the Secretariat for the successful organization of the launching of the International Year of Sustainable Tourism for Development during FITUR, in January 2017;
5. Welcomes the successful expansion of the UNWTO International Network of Sustainable Tourism Observatories (INSTO), as a crucial tool for monitoring the tourism development and ensuring the sustainability of the tourism sector;
6. Supports the work of the Secretariat regarding dissemination of data, research and guidance in the form of publications;
7. Calls on the Secretariat to enhance its collaboration with the UNWTO Affiliate Members and on research in particular.

4.b Programme of Work for Europe – Regional activities

The Commission,

Having heard the presentation of the Regional Director for Europe on the Programme of Work for Europe - Regional Activities:

1. Thanks her for the detailed and informative presentation and notes with interest the activities carried out to achieve a closer regional cooperation, in particular those relating to knowledge sharing and capacity building;
2. Supports the work of the Regional Programme in mainstreaming tourism in the European political agenda through the delivery of the Open Letter for Tourism and the signing of the Private Sector commitment to the Global Code of Ethics for Tourism;
3. Welcomes and encourages the increased involvement of European member States in the committees and working groups of the Organization;
4. Encourages the Regional Programme to continue its activities in line with the priorities identified by the European Member States, and highlights particular themes such as using culture as a tool for tourism in rural areas, and how to develop compelling products to prolong the tourism season;
5. Congratulates the Organization for its continuous efforts in hosting trainees and officials on loan from the European Member States and encourages them to present candidates;
6. Welcomes the ongoing implementation of the Ad-hoc Grant Agreement with the European Commission DG GROWTH on “Enhancing the Understanding of European Tourism”, notes with satisfaction the successful organization of the 1st International Western Silk Road Workshop (Greece) and the 3rd International Congress on Ethics and Tourism (Poland) within the framework of the agreement, and expresses its satisfaction on the publication of the European Union Short-Term Tourism Trends, a useful instrument for the member States;
7. Takes note of a new Memorandum of Cooperation signed with the Council of Europe;
8. Welcomes the increased collaboration with the Black Sea Economic Cooperation (BSEC) as well as with the Cooperation Council of Turkic Speaking States (the Turkic Council), reflecting the continued interest of the Organization in better understanding and addressing the issues of most concern to the Members at a sub-regional level;

9. Encourages the Regional Programme for Europe to continue engaging in sub-regional initiatives and supports, in this regard, the activities carried out and foreseen in 2017;
10. Thanks the team of the Regional Programme for Europe for its diligent work and assistance to the Members.

4.c Update on Affiliate Members Activities

The Commission,

Having heard the report of the Executive Director for Member Relations on the update on Affiliate Members activities:

1. Thanks him for his remarks;
2. Acknowledges that Affiliate Members of the Organization constitute an enormously valuable asset for projecting and broadening the principles and image of UNWTO worldwide;
3. Takes note with satisfaction of the growing number of private sector entities joining the Affiliate Members' Programme, representing a variety of economic sectors;
4. Supports the Organization in its efforts to multiply its partnerships with external institutions, especially with the private sector, as an effective tool to expand UNWTO's reach and sphere of influence, as well as a constructive way for increasing its resources;
5. Welcomes that the UNWTO Awards for Excellence and Innovation in Tourism have become a flagship event for the global tourism sector;
6. Notes with satisfaction the growing interests of Member States' participation in the various networks and prototypes, and congratulates the Affiliate Members programme for the results achieved in connection with the Gastronomy Network and the Wine tourism prototype;
7. Notes with interest the informative and practical reports prepared by UNWTO and numerous Affiliate Members and encourages the Affiliate Members to continue contributing with their best practices;
8. Supports the reform of the Rules of procedure of the Affiliate Members.
