The Evolution of Human Civilization

- Wave 1: Agricultural Age
- Wave 2: Industrial Age
- Wave 3: Information Age (Alvin Toffler)
- Wave 4: Orientation to Creativity, Culture, Heritage & the Environment (Kotler et al 2010)
Wave 4 (according to Kotler et al)

Driven by 3 major forces shaping the business landscape:

1. Participation
   • Technology enabling connectivity & interactivity

2. Globalization
   • A paradox that can open up markets but not necessarily the politics – both helps & hurts

3. The Evolution of the Creative Society
   • Hubs who connect consumers – driven by technology

Food, Culture & Tradition: Tourism
THE FUTURE OF FOOD TOURISM
Foodies, Experiences, Exclusivity, Visions and Political Capital
Edited by Ian Yeoman, Una McMahon-Beattie, Kevin Fields, Julia Albrecht and Kevin Meethan

Description
This book presents a systematic and pattern-based explanation of food tourism, focusing on how and why change could occur and what the implications could be. In the future will food tourism involve food grown in the laboratory or a more authentic experience? The book explores these and many other futures and scenarios.

The Many Dimensions of Food
- What is it?
- Where did it come from?
- How is it made?
- How/why is it used?
- How has it shaped the local culture?

Food, Folk & Fables
Local legends used to ‘sensualize/mystify’ food?
Even More Dimensions of Food

- Growing interest in what we eat to fuel or bodies
- Our relationship with food
  - Is it local?
  - Is it seasonal (fresh)
  - Is it organic?
  - Who produced it?
  - Is that production fair, humane?
- Allows for tight regional differentiation
