

International Conference on Religious Tourism:
*Fostering sustainable socio-economic development in host communities

Bethlehem, State of Palestine, 15-16 June 2015

Session 4: Inclusive socio-economic development of local communities – promoting partnerships that work

Sheikh Abd El Majid Atta Al-Amarneh, Mufti of Bethlehem, Palestine

Bio:

Originally from Ras Abu Ammar, a village demolished in 1948 by Israeli occupation, Sheikh Abd El-Majeed lives today in the Deheisheh Refugee Camp.

Sheikh Abd-El Majeed earned his Master in Islamic Studies from Alquds University in 2013 and serves as the Mufti of Bethlehem since 2004.

He is known for his work on Islamic Christian relations from the Muslim perspective as well as his awareness work within the international community on the brotherhood between Muslims and Christians in Palestine.

Sheikh Abd El-Majeed has a long history of presenting TV programs on local TV and radio channels on the themes of Islamic Christian Relations as well as women's rights.