

Individual and communal ceremonies, in daily life of Balinese, are realization of philosophy and ethics of Bali Hinduism

Silent Day Eve is a parade of “Ogoh-ogoh” to keep away the bad spirit.

Purification ceremony on the beach, view days before the Silent Day.

Total silent in the cities and in the villages
during the “Silent Day”

“Tumpek Bubuh / Kandang” is holy day to respect flora, fauna and environment. Some trees are wrapped with cloth to symbolized equality of human being and plantations